Auxiliary Members Set Social Meet

Cleora Stanger, and her committee will serve as hostesses for the monthly social meeting of the Auxiliary on Monday evening in St. Andrew's Parish House. All members are urged to attend. Past presidents of the unit were honored at the last meeting when each gave a resume of her term of office and at its conclusion received a camellia corsage. Guest speaker for the occasion was Marie Sharp, past 19th District chairman. Initiation of a class of candidates was a feature of the evening. At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by Tania Grobosky, Alice Thompson and Gertrude Boyle.

Business Women's Dinner Fetes High School Group

Members of the National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance met Monday evening at Palos Verdes Country Club. Co-hostesses for the enjoyable affair were Harriet Hill Hardy, class advisor of Torrance High School staff, and Mrs. Bernard Lee, youth activities chairman of the club. President Emma Roberts graciously acknowledged introduction of the several guests and later welcomed a group of new members into the club. The club was hostess to six girls from Torrance High School who had previously been interested guests of various club members in celebration of Girls' Week. They are: Pat Clere, Pat Weber, Donna Geary, Lorraine Foley, Janet Lewellen, and Rose Rosenberg. Zada Ramsey, membership chairman, inducted as new members: Ruth Davis, Billy Dunning, Tressa Finlayson, Maude Fraser, Harriet Hardy, Regina May, Doris Spoon, and Lucille Stroh. Emblem Chairman Helen Williams explained the symbols of the club emblem and the broad aims of the nationwide club for the advancement of women in the business world. She also gave a brief history of the national organization of the club in an interesting manner. The collect was given by Harriet Spencer, first vice-president.

Dinner Party Occasion for Gift Shower

Mrs. Irene Sage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Finley, 2121 Gramercy avenue, was the surprised honoree at a progressive dinner given by guild and choir members of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church when guests assembled in the Guild Hall for the dessert course. Mrs. Sage, choir director, whose marriage to Jack Hoy of Lomita will take place April 30, was showered with kitchen utensils for her new home. Hostesses were the bride's mother, and Meses. H. Wesley Roloff, Neal Backer, and Robert Jansen.

Mothersingers Schedule for Spring Told

Two special events will mark the Torrance Mothersingers' meeting next Monday evening. At the beginning of the rehearsal the ladies will pose for a group picture; at the end they will enjoy a social evening. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Geneva Sheffield, president and Mrs. Margie Van Belhemen, accompanist. All ladies registered with the Mothersingers, or those who are interested in joining the choral, are asked to come out this Monday and be faithful in attending weekly rehearsals. "We must have a consistent and unified group in order to polish our repertoire," Director Anthony Vazzana stated. Persistent indigestion is one of the "seven danger signs" of cancer. Write your nearest American Cancer Society office or ACS, 47 Beaver Street, New York City, for booklet on how to guard against cancer.

INSTALLATION PLANNED BY THETA RHO GIRLS

Fiery Theta Rho Girls made plans for their annual installation ceremonies in April and a benefit dance in May when they met for their regular meeting Wednesday. Mary Montonye presided at the business meeting.
